

In April of 2007, after 22 years of secular employment with the Boeing Company, Mark was called to the pastorate at East Renton Community Church. He is a 2006 graduate of Western Seminary, where he was awarded his Masters in Divinity. Mark is happily married to Patti, his wife of 29 years. They have four adult children, three boys and a girl. Both Mark and Patti have a passion for ministry and love being around God's people. In their free time they enjoy hanging out with family and friends and participating in outdoor activities like camping, fishing, hiking and boating.
